How to schedule an appointment with a Psychology major advisor on EAB Navigate
There are two ways that students can make an appointment with a Psychology major advisor through the EAB Navigate system.

1) If you received an email from a Psychology major advisor inviting you to set up an appointment, all you need to do is click on the link in the email and proceed with selecting a day and time that works for you.

2) If you have not received an email but want to make an appointment, please follow the remaining slides.
Go to https://sdsu.campus.eab.com/ and login using your SDSUid email address and password.

Then, click on “Get Assistance”
Select “Advising”

Select “Academic Advising”

Select the reason for why you want to see your major advisor.

Only choose from these options:
- Career/Graduate School Planning
- Changes to my Schedule
- Class Scheduling
- Major Advising
- Major/Minor Exploration/Change
- Minor Advising
- Transfer Credit/Evaluation
Select "Psychology Advising Center"

If you chose "Psychology Advising Center", this should default to "Any Staff".

Then, click on "Next".

Select a time that works for you. Note that appointments can last up to 1 hour.

If none of the available days and times work with your schedule, you may request an appointment day and time that works for you using this option.

Then, click on “Next”.
Choose how you would like to receive confirmation of your appointment.

Please specify exactly what you would like to discuss during your appointment.

Then, click on “Confirm Appointment”.
Your appointment has now been scheduled. You will receive a confirmation either through email or text (or both). The advisor with whom you will meet will send you a Zoom link to your meeting as soon as they are able to.
